

Benefits of Joining HBA of North GA

Advocacy & Representation

Our association represents your interests at the local, state, and national levels, ensuring the building industry's voice is heard. Stay updated on critical laws and regulations that impact your business, helping you remain competitive and compliant.

Networking

Build valuable connections through membership meetings, outings, and industry-focused seminars. These events are designed to grow your professional circle and create new opportunities for partnerships and collaborations.

3-in-1 Membership

Joining your local home builders association automatically enrolls you into the state (HBA of Georgia) and national (NAHB) associations. Enjoy a wide range of services, benefits, and resources offered at each level. Dedicated staff are available to support you and your business.

Education

Access cutting-edge knowledge through workshops, seminars, and industry programs. Stay informed about trends, best practices, and essential topics to maintain a competitive edge and elevate your business' success.

General Contractor Licensing Continuing

Education Classes

Multiple offerings throughout the year of Free and Discounted continuing education classes to help keep up with state licensing requirements.

Insurance Savings

Take advantage of exclusive insurance programs available only to members. These plans are designed to save you money while providing essential coverage for your business.

Advertising & Marketing

Promote your business through advertising opportunities in local, state, and national newsletters and magazines. Sponsor association events to gain visibility and credibility while showcasing your latest products or services.

Strength in Numbers

Together, we accomplish more. Membership unites you with others in the industry to advocate for positive change, protect the future of our trade, and strengthen the communities where we live and work.

Industry Publications

Receive member-only magazines like Georgia Builder and Builder Magazine, packed with the latest product innovations, technology insights, and market trends. Local, state, and national newsletters keep you informed on events and regulatory changes.

Professional Image

Membership sets you apart as a dedicated professional who values the industry, community, and customers. Show the public you are committed to excellence and leadership in the housing industry.
